

COPPA Statement to Parents and Guardians

Information Collected

We respect the privacy of children, and do not collect any more personal information than reasonably necessary to enable them to participate in the activities we offer at our website.

Once we have express consent from you as outlined above, we will permit your child enter his or her profile which will include your child's e-mail address (or that of their parent), first name, full last name, and city of residence. We will also permit your child to enter rowing workout information, including free text comments. The information we collect is used exclusively in the on-line ranking log and challenge honor boards. We do not have any agreements with outside organizations to collect personal information at our website. We do not share children's (or adult's) personal information with any third party.

Parental Review

As a parent, you have the legal right to review and secure correction of personal information that we have obtained from your child under the age of 13. You also have the right to withdraw or limit your previous consent to our collection and use of the personal information of your child under the age of 13. In order to exercise these rights, parents should contact us by email at: feedback@membersfirstga.com by telephone at 404.978.0080 or by mail at 2746 Lawrenceville Highway, Decatur GA 30033. We will not release any personal information of children under the age of 13 to persons claiming to be those children's parents without verification that the child's parent is requesting the information.

If we make any material change to this notice or the informational practices with regard to children that were in effect when your consent to the collection of your child's personal information was obtained, we will, as required by law, send you a new notice and request your consent.

We take seriously our obligation to safeguard the confidentiality, security and integrity of personal information collected from our customers, and have established and will maintain procedures that are designed for that purpose. Children and parents should be aware, however, that no system is completely secure from hackers, network failure and error, and we cannot guarantee the confidentiality, security and integrity of information maintained on our service.

Finally, it is important to us that members and their parents understand our policy and practices concerning the collection, disclosure and use of our members' personal information. We encourage you to carefully read our Privacy Policy, and if you have any questions about our information practices, please contact us by email at: feedback@membersfirstga.com by telephone at the number set forth above; or by mail at the address specified above.
